Domenico Costanzo is Mechanical Engineer with expertise in tribology, additive manufacturing, materials characterization, and advanced surface engineering technologies. Experienced in European R&D project execution and coordination. Currently Project Coordinator of SMARTWELD (RFCS), developing smart and sustainable welding solutions for the steel industry.