

Luca Rolle – CV

Luca Rolle is Co-Founder and CEO of PlantZCare, a spin-off of Politecnico di Torino developed from academic research and focused on innovative technologies for direct plant health monitoring and precision agriculture. A PhD candidate in Electronic Engineering at Politecnico di Torino, he works on monitoring systems and sensing technologies for AgriTech applications. His background combines research and entrepreneurial development, with the goal of translating scientific innovation into practical and scalable applications.